BVSC July Update

Bear Valley Music Festival Meetup

Join your fellow BVSC members at the Bear Valley's #1 event of the year that has been going on for over 50 years. Over the 3 weeks, the festival features 14 musical events including Classical concerts that feature BVMF's world-renowned conductor, Alexander Mickelthwate, a classical children's concert, as well as Jazz, and Rock.

The concert Saturday night, July 22 that features the Steely Dan /Chicago cover band starting at 7:00PM should be a sure hit.

We will meet in the parking lot for our tailgate gathering starting around 5:00 PM. Signs will designate the area where to meet. The Bear Valley Music Festival does have food and wine and beer for sale. You can bring a salad, appetizer, or finger food to share if you would like. Please bring your own plates, utensils, chairs. Feel free to bring a grill and if anyone can bring a small folding table bring it along.

If you are planning to attend, let us know how many there will be in your group and if you are bringing something to share or purchasing food at the event. Please let Bob Loudy know at rloudy@gmail.com.

You can buy your Music Festival tickets online at <https://www.bearvalleymusicfestival.org/>

As of July 11, there were about 50 tickets remaining. The Premium seats are gone but as many who have been know that there is always a lot of dancing in the front of the band and to the sides. So, you buy a Center or Rear seat, but because of the dancing you'll have a Premium
